Thought so. Do you happen to have examples of the handout and presentation?

Yes. Thanks for remembering that. I don't have a copy of the prepared remarks from the last time. If you look at the transcript from the public hearing you can find Guy's opening remarks from the last TX RH hearing.

There is also a handout/fact sheet that needs to be put together and a presentation for the information session.

I remember Guy read a statement at the opening of the hearing last January. I believe Joe prepared the statement. Is that something I'll need to do?
